

5 Tips to Build Self-Esteem In children

1

Ensure children know you are proud to be their parent just because they are them!

2

Allow children to make positive risks and make choices.

3

Ask children how they feel about their achievements rather than rewarding them.

4

Show an interest in children's interests!

5

Have conversations around mistakes made privately.

